AWARD MESSAGE

I want to take this opportunity to recognize Manoj for their outstanding work in developing complex yet intuitive dashboards that are not only insightful but also easy for stakeholders to comprehend. His innovative use of new Power BI features has resulted in consumer-friendly dashboards that are clean, impactful, and truly serve their purpose. Despite being relatively new to the team, Manoj has quickly picked up on the VRO activities and PMO initiatives, efficiently supporting the team in maintaining a centralized repository. His diligence, commitment, and strong sense of responsibility have already made a significant impact on our project's success. Moreover, Manoj has shown immense zeal to learn new technologies and frameworks, continuously improving his own deliverables as well as those of the team. He is a great team player with tremendous potential, and I am excited to see all that he will achieve in the future. Wishing him continued success as he moves forward!
